

MODERN LEADERSHIP ISSUES HDF 290

-
- Study leadership in small business, local politics, education, the modern family, community service and non-profit organizations, and all about diversity in the workplace
 - Develop leadership skills such as interviewing, public speaking, group discussion facilitation, critical thinking, and synthesis (learning from a variety of sources, including the other class members)
 - Counts as CORE class for the minor in Leadership Studies for students who enroll in the minor as sophomores or juniors, or students who could not take FLITE as freshmen
 - Counts as an ELECTIVE class for the minor in Leadership Studies for students who took FLITE as freshmen.
 - Fall 06 Tues/Thurs 11:00-12:15pm
 - Spring 07 Tues/Thurs 11:00-12:15 or 12:30-1:45 pm
 - Limited to 20 students--register early!
 - For more information, stop by Memorial Union Room 210

*URI Memorial Union's Center for Student Leadership Development
Preparing Students to be Real World Leaders*